Well done to all our junior school “book worms” who are taking part in the Premier’s Reading Challenge. Keep reading!

It’s been a great term for reading and writing in the junior school!

We read Diary of a Wombat and wrote our own versions using Jackie French’s style.

Reading and listening to digital texts on the iPads.

We have been practising “visualising” to improve our reading comprehension. Here are some visualisations of the “Green Giant”.
